ANSWERED PRAYER.

Below we give an extract from a sermon preached at St. Paul's church, Oakland, by Bishop Whitaker, of Nevada. The discourse abounded in vigorous thoughts which were in perfect harmony with the occasion. We have space only for the following:

St. Augustine's mother prayed that her son should not be allowed to go to a certain institution lest he should be alienated from the Christian faith and from her. He went to the institution, and there espoused the faith. In his after writings he said her prayer was answered in the result upon his life. The thing she asked for she did not receive, but that which was in her heart God saw and answered. So has God turned and answered our prayers. We asked that James A. Garfield might live. In that petition we asked for the perpetuity of the Government that we might be a nation of one heart and mind, that the Government might be established by right, that bitterness and hatred might be removed. God has wonderfully answered that prayer. Never has the nation been as free from animosity and party spirit and strife, as it is beside the bier of the dead President to-day. In spirit the prayer has been abundantly answered. This is none the less true in all concerns of private and personal life.

MAC VEAGH ON ARTHUR'S CABINET.

General Mac Veagh states that he recognizes to the fullest the propriety of President Arthur selecting, as his confidential advisers, gentlemen who have heretofore sustained relations, not only of personal good will, but also of political sympathy with him. Indeed, he does not think any Administration would be strong if there was any ground for suspicion or distrust among its members. As soon, therefore, as President Arthur had taken the oath of office MacVeagh said he had tendered his resignation in writing. He also assured the President that his resignation was not a form, but a fact, and he hoped it would be convenient to designate his successor by the time the Senate met in special session. MacVeagh said that on special grounds he felt no difficulty in pursuing the course his feelings dictated. The only political work to which he attaches any importance now is the work of administrative reform, including, of course, the exposure and relentless pursuit of all plunderers of the public treasury. If President Arthur engages heartily and thoroughly in that good work, as he hopes and believes he will, then he is entitled to the credit of doing it with an Attorney General of his own selection, and not with one inherited from President Garfield.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Carson Index: The oration delivered by Hon. R. M. Daggett at Virginia was masterly. The theme selected by Mr. Daggett was poetical, and its treatment was that which recalls the dispassion of music and poetry. We doubt whether in the United States more musical words and periods enunciated a nation's grief, or the grand inspirations of humanity. The oration and the occasion are suggestive of the Lincoln obsequies at Washoe City in 1865, when Honorable Thomas Fitch delivered an oration which fairly eclipsed any other oratorical effort in the Union.

The Sacramento Bee says: It is probable that James G. Blaine wants to leave the Cabinet, but not so probable that President Arthur will accept his resignation. The loss of such a man at such a time would be a loss indeed. Blaine has brains, shrewdness, tact and executive ability. He is a brilliant conversationalist, personally magnetic and politically able. No bigger brain or broader intellect than his has ever held the position of Secretary of State.

The private papers of the dead Chief Magistrate are being arranged at the White House by Assistant Secretary Pruden. There is insurance of $25,000 in the Equitable of New York, and further amounts were placed else where. During his long illness the President declined to make a will. The estate is valued at $25,000. The subscription started by Cyrus W. Field amounts to $190,000, the additions yesterday being $32,461.—Philadelphia Press, 21st.

Since the death of President Garfield the German Government has not been heard from, and its inaction has excited the indignation of the German people in this country. On Saturday evening last the following dispatch was cabled to Berlin:

To the Imperial Chancellor: All Governments have sent direct messages of condolence to Mrs. Garfield and the United States Government; only Germany's is wanting. Such message should be forthcoming before the burial.

THE GERMANS OF SAN FRANCISCO.

To tell the exact truth, this is a great free country, full of people of all sorts of politics and opinions and religions and notions—people of European stock, and African and Asiatic and aboriginal; and Gen. Arthur is the President for them all. Gen. Arthur's father was an Irishman, from the country of Antrim, but Gen. Arthur himself is of American birth—born in Vermont.—N. Y. Sun.

The Carson Index was an optimist during the Presidential illness and turned the broadside of contempt on Secretary Blaine for his pessimist dispatches. There is no doubt, said the Index, and never has been any doubt of the President's recovery. The Index ought to follow its former fair policy and acknowledge that Blaine was truthful, and better informed than the Index editor.

Mrs. Mary Jefferson Eppstine, granddaughter to Thomas Jefferson, visited the White House yesterday morning, and was shown over the rooms. She had with her the silver medal voted to Jefferson by the Continental Congress for his services to liberty in drafting the Declaration of Independence.

President Arthur is as fully determined as even his predecessor was to punish the men who defrauded the Government through the State route contracts, and Postmaster-General James will remain at the head of the Department until those prosecutions are ended.

Art Notes.

A gentleman who saw President Garfield before July 23, affirms that the picture by T. F. Laycock, Reno, which was part of the decoration at the theater on Monday, is the best portrait which he has yet seen of the late President.

McClellan is now working at his Indian study, and with every touch of the brush the painting grows in interest. The scene represents two groups of genuine Nevada Indians seated near a circus tent and enjoying the procession. It is easy to see that this painting is a labor of love with the artist, and it promises to be one of his most valuable works.

What Does It Signify?

Intelligence received from the Warner Observatory, Rochester, New York, announces the discovery of a comet located in the constellation of Virgo. It is a striking coincidence that this new and bright comet appeared at the same hour President Garfield was breathing his last. It was first seen by E. E. Barnard in Nashville, Tennessee, who has made claim through Professor Swift for the Warner prize of $200 in gold. This makes the fifth comet seen since May 1st, and of this number four have appeared from almost the same spot in the heavens.

District Court.

Yesterday evening the case of Hartson, vs. Hammond & Wilson was concluded and submitted to the jury. At midnight they returned a verdict for defendants.

This morning the case of Billeman vs. Cahn was continued until October 1st.

The case of Haskell vs. Wintermantle was on trial this afternoon.

The Wounded.

Messrs. Scoville and Balch, the men wounded in Tuesday's affray, were resting rather easier to-day. Dr. Lee thinks Scoville has one chance in one hundred, Balch's condition has not materially changed.

Chess is an intellectual game, and you can get the men, also checkers at Nash's Bazaar. The thermometer was a little warmer to-day at 9, 11, 1 and 3—80, 87, 87, 68.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Assassin Guiteau.

New York, September 28. A Washington special to the Telegram says: Guiteau will be indicted on Monday or Tuesday next, and the problem which is now troubling the authorities is how to transport him safely from the jail to the Court-house. Under the posse comitatus law United States troops cannot be used, and it is doubtful whether the police are equal to the effort of keeping him out of the hands of the people, who will watch all the movements.

It is now known that McGill, the guard, who reported that Guiteau had attacked him, really undertook to kill Guiteau in pretended self-defense, and that Guiteau had a narrow escape on that occasion. He is in a continued state of fright and implores for protection constantly.

RED BANK, N. J., September 28. The legal authorities of Monmouth county have addressed the Attorney-General of the State and the Attorney-General of the United States upon the propriety of filing counts before the Grand Jury of Monmouth county against Guiteau for the murder of Garfield. It is held that a waiver of the Coroner's inquest by the State does not deprive the Grand Jury of its power to indict the criminal.

Arthur at Work.

New York, Sep. 28. A Tribune Washington special says: President Arthur is reported as favoring the election of David Davis to the Presidency of the Senate if that shall prevent a sharp conflict between the parties. Arthur has taken hold of the work before him with a will, and since the remains of Garfield left the city he has been laboring assiduously to get his affairs in order against the time when the rush for office will begin. Last night he sat up till 4 A. M., dictating correspondence to his stenographer, after which he retired, giving orders that he was not to be disturbed until noon. His habits of work seem to be methodical, and he is evidently not afraid to take hold of the details, and work them out with his own hands.

The Murderer's Coming Trial.

WASHINGTON, September 27. Scoville of Chicago has not yet answered Guiteau as to whether he will act as counsel in his trial. Scoville was not in Chicago, but a message has been forwarded to him. The Grand Jury next week will doubtless find a true bill on an indictment for murder, but an immediate trial is improbable. The Court still treats the prisoner anomalously, Guiteau only knows by inference even now that he killed the President. It is believed the trial will be deferred till the first Monday in December. Guiteau desires a delay, and says he can't have a fair trial until there is a cooling down in the community, which has applauded and never arrested the two men who have attempted his life in his cell.

Sensational Reports.

CHICAGO, September 28. It is reported from various sources that Arthur has been shot. Another dispatch from Chicago says: There is nothing definite about Arthur, but it is believed that there is no truth in the report. However, there is considerable excitement at the news centers, and it is stated that a Cincinnati paper had issued an extra on the strength of the report. Another dispatch from Chicago says: The rumor is denied by the Washington agent of the associated press, who says it probably grows out of a story of a plot told in the afternoon dispatches.

Dear Drapery.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29. Inquiry among the drygoods houses, shows that the drapery of the city has swept the market bare of black and white cambrics, and nearly all the muslin is also gone. Messrs. Sachs, Heller & Co. were of the opinion that two months would elapse before the San Francisco market would be restocked with cambrics. It is estimated that $200,000 was expended in drapery the city.

Nevada Visits New York.

UTICA, September 28. There was much excitement and comment this afternoon when Senator Jones, of Nevada, an intimate and confidential friend of the President, stepped off the cars. He proceeded without delay to the residence of Conkling. A long conference was held, and rumors of immediate Cabinet changes are flying about town and every one is on the qui vive to learn the result of the conference.

Sworn Statement of a Plot to Assassinate Arthur.

WASHINGTON, September 28. O. M. Bagley, who is employed in the Army Medical Museum, has created something of a sensation in police and official circles by filing a sworn statement with the Chief of Police that he had overheard a plot to assassinate President Arthur. Bagley's affidavit is in effect that about midnight last Monday, while lying on his bed, which was in a lower front room fronting on Missouri avenue, he heard two men talking of assassinating President Arthur. Bagley states that the window blinds were closed and the two men were leaning against a tree-box immediately in front of his room; that one of the men said it would happen in one month; that he (referring to some man whose name was not mentioned) had sworn to kill Arthur within that time, and that the man who had thus sworn was a Garfield Republican. Bagley said that he was so much agitated he did not know what to do; that the next day he informed the Chief Clerk of his division of what he had heard and he advised Bagley to report the facts to the police.

A Train-wrecker's Confession.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sep. 28. The four men recently arrested for the late attempt to wreck the overland train near Cape Horn, are now undergoing a preliminary examination at Auburn. Mason, one of the gang, has made a full confession, which is corroborated by the finding of the tools, arms, etc., in the places designated by him. All will undoubtedly be held to answer.

Police Court.

The defendants in the terrible affray of Tuesday were arraigned in the Justice Court this morning. Messrs. Lindsay and Dickson, Wm. Webster and W. E. F. Deal were of counsel for the defense. The defendants expressed themselves as ready to proceed, but District Attorney Rankin desired a continuance, which was granted. Much useless wind was indulged, after which the examination went over until Thursday next.

NEVADA AND OREGON.

Who Holds the Stock and Who Built the Road—Summary of Colonel Moore's Complaint to the $5,000,000 Suit.

The GAZETTE has been shown the complaint filed in the 1st District Court of Nevada, wherein Thomas Moore is plaintiff and the Nevada and Oregon Railroad company, E. D. Wheeler, Tremmor Coffin, James McMechan and John Sunderland are defendants. The beginning of the lengthy document sets out the organization of the company and making of contracts with plaintiff. The further and more particular allegations upon which the complaint is based seems to furnish a history of the Road from the commencement of the work, and this is deemed of sufficient interest in the present status of affairs to receive publication.

The complaint avers that plaintiff has kept and performed his contracts. The work of building the Reno division was commenced in December, 1880, and continued until February, 1881, when delays caused by the corporation. Work was recommenced April 26th and is still being vigorously prosecuted according to contract.

That plaintiff has completed ten miles of the Reno Division towards Beckwith Pass, and has graded fifteen miles more of the road from the end of the completed track. One locomotive used in construction and five construction cars have been purchased, and an engine house with capacity for three engines has been erected. Plaintiff has also purchased or contracted for ties for twenty-two miles more of said road, and has ordered and contracted for rails for said twenty-two miles more. He has provided track tools and other equipments, and has expended upon these (work and materials) about the sum of $180,000. Plaintiff claims to have fully complied with his contract, and now has about 350 laborers constantly employed in building the road.

WHO OWNS THE STOCK.

The complaint then goes on to allege the actual position of the stock to be as follows. Plaintiff is the owner an holder of 2,800 shares of the capital stock of said company. This stock is of the value of $100 per share and is fully paid and unassessable. Frank Field Fowler is the owner and holder of about 1,200 shares of such stock of same value which is fully paid and unassessable, and in addition Frank Field Fowler has full power of attorney for other persons owning and holding about 1,200 shares of said stock at same value fully paid and unassessable. And in addition about 200 other shares of said stock fully paid up and unassessable have been issued and are held by other persons. That the foregoing is all the stock that has been issued by said corporation, defendant, and no stock has been issued except that which is fully paid up, except illegal and void certificates issued to defendants E. D. Wheeler, Tremmor Coffin, James McMechan and John Sunderland.

PARTICULAR STOCK TRANSACTIONS.

The complaint further says that Wheeler, Coffin, McMechan and Sunderland hold no stock except that which came from an illegal and void issue to themselves, and particularizes as follows:

That E. D. Wheeler subscribed for five shares, 20 per cent., payable July 1st, and 10 per cent. on August 1st, September 1st and October 1st, and 50 per cent. on November 1st, not one cent of which has been paid. That Tremmor Coffin subscribed for 10 shares, 40 per cent. payable April 28th and the remainder in 10 per cent. monthly installments, commencing September 10th, and no part has been paid except $400.

James McMechan subscribed for five shares, payable 40 per cent. on April 28th and the balance in ten per cent. monthly installments, upon which nothing has been paid except $300.

John Sunderland subscribed for 15 shares, payable 40 per cent. on April 23, and the balance in ten per cent. monthly installments, upon which nothing has been paid except $750.

The complaint also says that defendants Wheeler, Coffin, McMechan and Sunderland have only procured subscriptions to about 50 shares of the stock except the illegal issue complained of and the 3,000 shares mentioned below. That all the other subscriptions have been procured by or through Moore.

WHEELER'S SUBSCRIPTION.

The complainant states that defendant E. D. Wheeler on April 25th, 1881, subscribed for three thousand shares of the stock of the corporation, to pay 10 per cent. immediately and 10 per cent upon the completion of each 15 miles of said railroad beyond Beckwith Pass, with privilege of making full payment at any time. The company agreed to issue proper certificates for this stock when fully paid up. Defendant Wheeler on April 25th paid the company $30,000, the sum then due under this contract, and on April 26th sold and assigned his contract with the company to plaintiff for $30,000, then and there paid by plaintiff to Wheeler. Plaintiff assumed all the obligations of the contract, and is the owner and holder of said subscription and interest in the stock thereunder.

THE ALLEGED ILLEGAL ISSUE.

The complaint further sets out the call for a stockholders meeting and alleges that the President, G. L. Woods, at the request of a majority called a meeting of the directors to remove the Secretary and pass "By Laws." It was expressly stated by the majority, of whom were defendants Wheeler, McMechan, Coffin and Sunderland, that it was no part of the business to receive subscriptions to the stock. At the meeting defendant Wheeler moved that subscriptions be received from Messrs. Wheeler, Coffin, Sunderland and McMechan for 12,500 shares each. President Woods denounced the proposed action as not in good faith and dishonest, and in violation of the contracts with plaintiff, then resigned and withdrew. Trustee Bragg also agreed with President Woods and withdrew from the meeting. Thereupon the defendants received subscriptions and issued to Messrs. Wheeler, Coffin, McMechan and Sunderland 12,500 shares each without their paying one cent. Therefore, the plaintiff claims the said issue of stock to have been illegal, both in form and substance, and against his rights both as contractor and stockholder, as neither of said parties can or will, or intend to pay any part of said subscription. The plaintiff alleged that the illegal issue was made that the defendants might elect themselves trustees and then goes on to state the legal grounds upon which his prayer for an injunction was based.

The above is taken from the complaint subscribed and sworn to by Thomas Moore, and filed with the Clerk of the First Judicial District Court in and for the county of Storey.

The cause has now been transferred to the United States District Court, and as no answer has yet been filed it is not known what defense, if any, the defendants named may interpose.

THIRTY MILLIONS.

Plaintiffs who want a Slice of the California Mine Amounting to that Sum.

Metcalf Pratt has commenced suit before Judge Rising, against the California Mining Co. for the recovery of three-twentieths of thirty million dollars. Divested of legal verbiage, according to the Gold Hill News, the cause of complaint alleges that the plaintiff, in common with James Walsh, Joseph Woodworth, J. W. Hastings and George Wilson, was in possession of one-fourth of the ground now known as belonging to the California Mining Company, in 1859; that the interest of plaintiff was one-fifth; that he subsequently sold one-twentieth of five one-hundredths of the ground, and that he still holds three-twentieths of fifteen one-hundredths of one-fourth of the ground. The complaint goes on to state that the California Mining Company has taken out and mined ores to the value of $30,000,000 from the ground in question, and that he (the plaintiff) has never received his proportion of this amount, nor any part of it. He now invokes the power of the law to compel an accounting "in what-so-ever sum may be found due."

The papers in the suit were filed with the County Clerk by Lewis & Deal, attorneys for the plaintiff, on the 24th instant.

Dirt Cheap.

The State Line (Oregon) Herald says: "The Herald and WEEKLY GAZETTE may be had together for one year for $3 50, only 50 cents more than the Herald alone, or one dollar more than the WEEKLY GAZETTE. The two papers separately will cost you $5 50. Cash must invariably accompany your order to enable you to secure these reduced rates. The merits of the Herald are already known." Some good words about the GAZETTE are omitted through modesty.

R., and asked that the rolling stock assessed at $165,250, be reduced to $138,245, and on main stock from $384,750 to $230,850. Co. and asked that main track be assessed at $9,000 per mile, and on side track at $6,000 per mile, and on rolling stock: at $78,000 as proportion to Washoe county. After due consideration it was ordered by the Board that the rolling stock be assessed at $99,900, and on main track at $12,000 per mile, and on side track at $7,000 per mile.

Good Suggestions.

That Mr. McClellan, of Reno, our home artist, be requested to paint a life size picture of the late President, to be taken from the best photograph procurable in the State, that contributions be taken up for the payment of the work; that as handsome a frame as can be had be purchased and the picture hung in the State Library. A very good idea, and should be carried out.—Carson Tribune.

The GAZETTE indorses the idea and will aid in carrying it out. McClellan can do the work in an entirely satisfactory manner.

Plumas Wins.

The unfinished race of Saturday at the Sacramento Fair grounds was finished Tuesday. The race was for a purse of $1,000 for the 2-25 class, and so great was the interest taken in it that some $40,000 was locked up in the pool box. Ashley was given the race and first money, Crown Point second, Echors third and Del Sor fourth money.

The Rousseau Case.

The trial of Solomon Rousseau of Nevada City, charged with embezzling the sum of $1,025 from Wells, Fargo & Co., in December last, has been before the Superior Court. Yesterday the case was given to the jury, who returned a verdict of not guilty.
